IS NATHAN LAWRENCE

Norwich Police Establish Identity of "Frank Daniels."

It has been learned that Nathan Lawrence, alias Frank Daniels, who was arrested Feb. 18 for passing a forged check for $50 on Hyman Rosenberg of this city, has had quite a criminal career. At the time of the arrest he claimed that it was his first offense but yesterday Chief Richmond received word from the police authorities at Norwich that Nathan Lawrence had been arrested twice previously for forgery, the first time Sept. 22, 1912, and on March 4, 1914, Chief Richmond upon inquiry at the Brooklyn jail secured an admission that his right name was Lawrence and not Daniels. When first arrested here he gave his name as Lawrence but when taken before the court he said it was Daniels. For one only 29 years old he has quite a record.

Infant's Funeral.

Funeral services for Andrew, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mecher, who died Monday night of infantile trouble, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Andrew Johnson.

Mrs. Anna A. Johnson, widow of Andrew Johnson, died Sunday evening at Lawrence hospital, New London. She is survived by a daughter, Viola Johnson, also a patient at the Lawrence hospital, seriously ill. The body will be brought to this city on the 4:05 train and will be taken in charge by Funeral Director Jay M. Shepard.

Girls' Club to Hold Public Reception.

The Windham Girls' club will hold open house at their new rooms on Valley street tomorrow, (Thursday) night, all the women's clubs and organizations in the city having been invited. The rooms are being very attractively fitted up, a number of local merchants contributing of their goods. The girls are also busy collecting yards of pennies, one young lady having collected to date ten yards. Various classes will be formed in knitting, sewing, millinery, embroidery, crocheting, etc.

Boy Struck by Autotruck.

While playing at the corner of Willimantic and Main streets Monday afternoon Joseph, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Styrar of No. 15 Main street, was struck by the large autotruck belonging to the Gulf Refining company and painfully injured about the face and one arm. The truck was running close to the side of the street to allow another car to pass when the boy ran in front of the car and was struck by the hood of the car. He was taken to a physician's office and then to the hospital where he is receiving treatment.

Represents Tract Society.

Mrs. Eva R. Daggett, representing the Southern New England Tract Society, is in this city circulating copies of a magazine devoted to free speech, religious liberty and free press. Also, securing signatures to a petition to congress protesting against the passage of certain bills pending, which are considered detrimental to freedom in speech, press and religious liberty.

WEDDING.

Brooks-Morris.

Arthur G. Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brooks, of South Coventry, and Miss Lillian Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Morris of New Haven, were married at the home of the groom's parents in South Coventry, Sunday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Barber, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony. Miss Mabelle A. Nye of South Coventry was bridesmaid, and Walter Brooks, a brother of the groom, was best man. Those present were Mrs. Robert G. Morris of New Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brooks, Mrs. Charles Washburn, Miss Mabelle Nye, Walter Brooks, Charles Maass, Charles Barber and William Smith, all of South Coventry. After their return from a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will reside in New Haven.

Hospital Patients Cured.

Three patients were discharged from St. Joseph's hospital Monday, returning to their homes cured. Mr. Starr, who was treated for kidney trouble, and his daughter, Miss Emma Starr, who had pneumonia, returned to their home in New London. Another daughter of Mr. Starr, Mrs. Adams, was at the hospital at the same time, ill with pneumonia, but did not recover. The three were taken from their cottages at the camp grounds to the hospital about the same time. J. Bulken, whose life was despaired of for five weeks, recovered from double pneumonia and has returned to his home in Colchester.

Covenant Meeting.

The True Blue circle held a covenant meeting at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, about 18 members being present. Rev. W. P. Rowley, the pastor, was present and gave a short talk about the meaning of the covenant.

Theatre to Entertain School Children.

At 4:15 o'clock this afternoon the school children of this city will be the guests of the management of the Looper opera house at a special matinee at which an educational and instructive picture, "The Martyrs of the Alamo," will be shown. In the evening the girls of the Windham Girls' club will be guests of the management, at which the same picture will be shown.

Sunday Speakers.

Rev. Edward A. George of Ithaca, N. Y., a former pastor of the Willimantic Congregational church, will preach here next Sunday morning, occupying the pulpit from which he preached for a number of years. Mrs. Mary Vanderbilt will be the speaker and message bearer at the Spiritualist church on Bank street next Sunday.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Dennis Flaherty.

Mary Sullivan, wife of Dennis Flaherty, died at her home, No. 85 Jackson street, Monday evening after three weeks' illness with grip and complications. She was a native of Ireland, the daughter of John and Mary Sullivan. She had lived in this country for many years. Thirty years were spent at Storrs and the last nine years in this city. Besides her husband, she is survived by three daughters and two sons, Mrs. Charles Baker and Misses Margaret and Anna Flaherty of this city, Dennis of Wilmington, Del. and Daniel of Storrs, and seven grandchildren, John, Daniel, Joseph and James Flaherty of Wilmington, Del., Mrs. Byron Hawkins of Middlebury, Mrs. Nelson White of Winsted and Miss Elsie Baker of this city, also two great-grandchildren, Margaret and Kenneth Hawkins of Middlebury, and two sisters, Mrs. William B. McVerney of Rockville and Mrs. Johanna Mulligan of this city.

Board of Relief Exempts Spiritualists.

The board of relief met at the town building Tuesday afternoon. The total reduction made was $8,660.50. The building on Bank street belonging to the Spiritualist society and used by them as a place of worship was exempted from taxation. This was valued at $7,500.

I. O. O. F. Whist.

The second in a series of social whists given by the I. O. O. F. was held Tuesday evening at the Odd Fellows' hall on Main street. The whist was largely attended, the lodge room being filled and several tables had to be set in another room. Thirty-six tables in all were used. Through the generosity of the H. C. Murray company Columbia graphophone selections were enjoyed. After the whist, a social hour followed and refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream and cake.

Noted Here and There.

Cleophas Chalifoux and Miss Catherine Almeria Theriot, both of this city, were married at St. Mary's church Monday morning at 7:30 by Rev. C. J. Lemieux.

The local telephone exchange has installed 14 new telephone lines during the week ending Feb. 26; 6 in the city, 2 in Storrs, 5 in Mansfield, 2 in Eagleville, and 1 in South Coventry.

Frederick K. Manley, the Willimantic brakeman who was injured at Putnam Saturday, remains in about the same condition. His mind seems to be a little clearer but he is still critically ill.

Mary E. Burnham of the town of Windham, has brought suit through her attorney, George E. Hinman, against Eliens E. H. W. Ham, claiming damages of $150. The case will come before the superior court the first Tuesday in March. Real estate of the value of $250 owned by the defendant in the town of Hampton has been attached.

Prince Albert tobacco has made three men smoke pipes where one smoked before!

PRINCE ALBERT
the national joy smoke

LAY fire to a jimmy pipe jammed-chock-full of Prince Albert tobacco, or roll up a makin's cigarette—if you're digging after reasons why P. A. has revolutionized the pipe and "rolling" game; why P. A. has trebled the number of pipe smokers in six years; why Prince Albert is today smoked in every civilized nation on the globe!

Give P. A. the third-degree-test-out! Drill like sixty into that enticing flavor, that fragrance, that long-burning coolness. Your confidence never will be abused! The patented process makes all that possible—and frees the tobacco from bite and parch!

Prince Albert can be purchased everywhere tobacco is sold in tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors, and in that classy pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener pot that keeps the tobacco in such bang-up condition!

Men who have stowed away gentle old pipes for years have brought them back to the tune of Prince Albert! It will set free any-pipe-shy-tongue!

P. A. will prove out 100 per cent. any hour of the twenty-four! It will give any man all the pipe-happiness he ever did yearn for!

Rolled in a makin's cigarette, Prince Albert is so refreshing and so delightful, it gives you a brand-new idea of how mighty fine a real makin's cigarette can be! It's as satisfying to your taste as the prettiest thoughts of smoke-happiness you ever uncorked!

For Prince Albert has won its way on its merits. Won-over men of all tastes—it's so universal in its popularity; so good, and friendly, and satisfying! It will win you quick as a flash!

JEWETT CITY

Rev. Albert Donnell to Begin Congregational Pastorate Sunday — Four Leap Year Birthdays for Borough Residents.

With the first Sunday in March, the Rev. Albert Donnell enters on his pastoral duties as pastor of the Congregational church of Jewett City. He comes from Burlington, Mass., where with February he closed a four and a half years' pastorate, during which a long-entrenched church debt was provided for and improvements made in the church property. Previously he had served the church at Slaterville, R. I. for 13-12 years, procuring the transfer of the church property from the corporation that owned the village to the Rhode Island Home Missionary society. He successfully guided the church through the crisis resulting from the change of the industries of the place and the large reduction in the value of the real estate. He secured a substantial endowment for the church edifice.

Mr. Donnell was born in Cambridge, Mass., where his father was a merchant, but the family removing to Minnesota he received his academic education mainly in the west. In theology he is a graduate of the seminary at Bangor, Me. He is a member of the Massachusetts society of the Sons of the American Revolution and has acted as chaplain for that body.

Mr. Donnell is married and his son was graduated A. B. from the University of Michigan last June.

Entertained Baptist Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church met at Mrs. N. C. Babcock's last week. Mrs. Babcock was assisted by Mrs. G. H. Prior, Mrs. Esther Fitch, Mrs. Francis Smith, Miss Ruby Thornton and Miss Ruth Gray.

Short Paragraphs.

Peter Cooper and Miss Bessie Cooper returned Tuesday afternoon from New York, where they have been spending several weeks at the home of Mr. Cooper's son, William Cooper.

Mrs. Phebe Gray of Central Village attended the funeral of her husband's uncle, Isaac E. Gates, in New York, Sunday.

Mrs. William Abbott of Dalton, Mass., is a guest at Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Bliss.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Cheney have returned to their home in Lisbon.

Had Leap Year Birthdays.

There are at least four people in Jewett City who had a leap year birthday Tuesday. Mrs. John Perkins and Shepherd F. Brown have had eight birthdays during their lifetime. Miss Alice Cadieux, daughter of Joseph Cadieux, and Master John H. Tracy, who resides with Edward Smith's family, are 12 years of age and have had three birthdays.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 29.—Walker Hill, chairman of the St. Louis city democratic committee, has commissioned Franz Vittor, a Richmond sculptor, to make a bust of President Wilson, "to be unveiled when Wilson is renominated at St. Louis in June."

The sculptor left for Washington today to be presented to the president.

COURT MARTIAL OF TWO SWISS COLONELS

Accused of Supplying Germany With Military Information.

Zurich, Switzerland, Feb. 29, via Paris, 8:50 p. m.—Extraordinary precautions were taken by the military authorities to prevent the presence of any foreigners at the court martial of two Swiss colonels accused of supplying Germany with military information when the proceedings opened today. Fifty Swiss newspaper men, not one of whom is the correspondent of a foreign newspaper, were admitted. Each received a circular letter calling his attention to the national interests in involved and requesting the greatest prudence and reserve in the reports of the trial.

The accused officers are Colonel Maurice de Wittenwyll and Colonel Karl Egli, members of the Swiss general staff. They are charged with having communicated to the German and Austro-Hungarian legations in Bern confidential information regarding the French positions along the French-Swiss frontier which had come to their knowledge by virtue of their high positions. One of the officers is alleged to have had a Russian document in cipher translated and then to have sent the translation to the German general staff.

OHIO SCHOOL TEACHERS MAY ORGANIZE UNIONS

Have Legal Right to Affiliate With Labor Bodies.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 29.—Ohio school teachers won a victory in their campaign for organization of unions when the state supreme court today declined to dismiss a Cleveland case involving the question of their legal right to affiliate with labor bodies. The suit was instituted nearly two years ago by a Cleveland taxpayer to compel Superintendent J. M. H. Frederick to reinstate six teachers whom he had dismissed on orders of the board of education, after they had been active in organization of a grade teachers' club. The case was carried to the supreme court once before on the question of whether Superintendent

Frederick should serve a jail sentence imposed on him by a lower court for contempt in not reinstating the teachers as the court decreed. This sentence was overturned.

REPLY FROM GREAT BRITAIN ON AMERICAN MAIL PROTEST

Secretary Lansing Notified Document is on Its Way by Post.

READY TO VOTE ON WARNING AMERICANS OFF ARMED SHIPS

Administration Leaders in Congress Confident of Its Defeat.

Washington, Feb. 29.—Administration leaders in congress are ready to bring the question of warning Americans off armed ships of the belligerents to a vote at once, confident that they can defeat all such proposals. They feel that until the question is disposed of the president is hampered in the submarine negotiations with the central powers.
